

Clean House

♥ Effects:

- ♥ Whistle-blower picks winning side
- ♥ All that voted for the other side are fired
- ♥ Whistle-blower's point score set to 60

♥ Explanation:

♥ The upper management reacts very strongly, purging everyone that supported the unethical action. Morale and profits drop, but they hope that, in the long term, the health of the company will be improved.

Middle Managers Blamed

♥ Effects:

- ♥ All bosses get fired
- ♥ Whistle-blower picks the winning side
- ♥ Whistle-blower's point score set to 60

♥ Explanation:

♥ The whistle-blower is vindicated, but upper management successfully places the blame on lower-level managers.

Betray the Workgroup

♥ Effects:

- ♥ Whistle-blower picks winning side
- ♥ All members of whistle-blowers workgroup are fired
- ♥ Whistle-blower's point score set to 60

♥ Explanation:

♥ The whistle-blower pointed out unethical behavior that was occurring in her own workgroup. As a result, management fires all of the offenders.

Public Interest Only

♥ Effects:

- ♥ Whistle-blower picks the winning side
- ♥ Whistle-blower's score set to 0

♥ Explanation:

♥ The media publicizes the whistle-blower's claims, and the company does the right thing as a result. In retribution, the company fires the whistle-blower for printing garage sale fliers on the work printer.

Troublemaker

♥ Effects:

- ♥ Whistle-blower's point score set to 0

♥ Explanation:

♥ Management decides the whistle-blower is simply a troublemaker, and fires her.

Destroy the Nest

♥ Effects:

- ♥ All players in the whistle-blower's workgroup are fired
- ♥ Whistle-blower's point score set to 0

♥ Explanation:

♥ The whistle-blower got all of her workgroup members to support her whistle-blowing. The management of the company decided the workgroup were all troublemakers, and denied them further advancement. All members of the workgroup eventually quit.

Ostracism

♥ Effects:

- ♥ Whistle-blower's point score set to 0
- ♥ All members of whistle-blower's workgroup retroactively change their vote to oppose the whistle-blower

♥ Explanation:

♥ The whistle-blower's co-workers view her as a tattletale, and cease to support her, even when she is correct. She eventually quits due to this ostracism.

Counter-suit

♥ Effects:

- ♥ Whistle-blower's point score set to 0
- ♥ Whistle-blower must sit out the next round

♥ Explanation:

♥ The corporation responds to the whistle-blowing incident by counter-suing for defamation and breach of confidentiality. Due to the cost and time involved in defending such a case, the whistle-blower cannot work for several years.

HoW License Info

- These “Heart of a Whistle-blower” whistle-blower cards are licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-Share Alike 3.0 United States License. In particular:
 - ☞ You are free to remix
 - ☞ You are free to share
 - ⓘ You must give attribution
 - ☺ You must distribute derivative works under a compatible license
- Contributors
 - Dr. Bo Brinkman – Original card contents and game design
- These cards use the DejaVu font family, available at <http://dejavu.sourceforge.net> and the Creative Commons Icons Font from <http://creativecommons.org/presskit>